General Election this Fall Doherty's Hint to Quebec is Taken Up by Both Factions

QUEBEC, July 22.—The Quebec Telegraph today published the following:

"A quiet and well defined political activity is making its appearance in the city following the hint conveyed by Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice, to local Conservative workers that the general elections would be likely held this fall. This activity is not confined alone to Unionists, but has also spread among the Liberal ranks. For the last two weeks special emissaries of the Conservatives have been scurrying to Ottawa for instructions and a number of committee meetings have been held to formulate campaign plans."

Crops in Most Parts of Central Alberta Continue Favorable Say Correspondents of the Bulletin

Sufficient Moisture in Most Districts for All Requirements—Wheat Headed Out—Oats and Barley Better Than Wheat—Hay Some Damage

Crop reports from Bulletin correspondents throughout central Alberta indicate that the crop situation is very favorable. Although the weather in some parts has been fairly dry, the rains of the past two weeks have assured good growth and development, and while the prospects are very bright in most districts the wheat is headed out and is a good heady stand. The oat crop is also mostly headed, and in some districts the barley is beginning to head. The oat and barley crop as a whole are slightly better than those of last year.

The crops suffered some from a lack of rain in some parts during the latter part of June, and although there has been sufficient rain since, some grain has not yet fully recovered and will be lighter than usual. This applies only to two or three districts, and particularly to the early sown wheat. The hay crop is all over and is reported to be somewhat light. Near Clyde, Vimy and Jeffrey all grasses were reported to be in fair condition.

In the Edmonton district all grain is well ahead, and the prospects are good prospects considerably.

The wheat crop is well above what was expected, and the fallow land is exceptionally good. At Lacombe, Mr. Clark, of Clive, has reported that wheat is in excellent condition, and the beans are well along. The bean crop is the best he has ever seen. It is well above average.

The hay crop is somewhat lighter than usual, and the grasses stand fairly short.

The crops suffered somewhat during the dry weather in June, but following the rains of the past two weeks have recovered considerably, and indications are that they will be in fair condition when they are harvested as heavy as in most years there will still be a good yield.

The potato showing is the best in the history of the crop, and the indications are that the yield will be exceeded.

Along the C.P.R. from Edmonton to Red Deer, the reports are good. There has been sufficient rain in these districts for the most part, and the crops are in excellent condition, with the exception of a somewhat set back by the dry weather in June they have rapidly recovered.

At Lethbridge, the reports are good.

At the C.P.R. stations between Lethbridge and Red Deer, the reports are good. There has been sufficient rain in these districts for the most part, and the crops are in excellent condition, with the exception of a somewhat set back by the dry weather in June they have rapidly recovered.

Joke Fest of Arabian Nobles In Edmonton Friday Afternoon One of Hilarious Merriment

Wearers of the Zouave Uniform and Red Fez Conducted Themselves as Care-free Youths, to Whom H. C. L. and a New Government Meant Nothing

Over the raised, crooked trail leading to the picnic grounds at Victoria park red-faced Shurines in their hundreds gave a long line of autos clogging down to the green spaces or the river on Friday afternoon. The sun was bright, the air cool, and the weather therefore quite in keeping with the season. The brilliant Alberta sun shone through the clusters of leafy trees, the bushes and the lawns with yellow and red of the Shurines' uniform, and the ladies made a kaleidoscope of color.

On the side of the city police force with a number of his men were on the ground early and were soon joined by a dozen or so who had come to the fair blazoned by the name of "The Legion". The Legion, under its director of ceremonies, during the absence of the Legion, who was a young fellow in a like office at the embarking end at the Macdonald, had several auto drivers, who, in their cars, were driving auto racing in their cars right across the sudden dashes made to the apparent safety of the spectators.

These laudable endeavors were frustrated by the numberless who returned to the fair, and Mr. Hepburn promised that those gentlemen would during the evening have the opportunity of communicating with the most prominent and that of the most stalwart men.

Rough Work in Sports

The sports commenced at the field house with a violent exhibition of the peculiarities and another irregular nature of the game. The first players were prominently displayed. Each team was represented in the field with a man in the center, who, when the bellows of the players paid off, would call out "Play ball" and the bases from the field, the catcher at home would roll the striker "Wellin", while the pitcher would be addressed with the words "Come on" and "Lanigan".

Calgary field Edmonton on the field battle and Calgary won a most signal victory from the Calgarians.

Both teams were then sent to the post, the event being won by Oakies.

Each team was given a price of $100 and demands for another $100.

In the first event, the 100 yards dash, the race was won by the Arabs.

In the second, the 100 yards dash, the winner, clearly as far as could be seen because he landed first, was the Arab.

The third race, the 100 yards dash, was won by the ladies open race, Miss Katherine John.

Miss B. Wright, a close second.

The men's three-legged race was won by the Arabs, and the women's race by the Calgarians.

With the exception of the team from the home town, George Hepburn, and his men, who have knocked up a good record, the other teams have entirely refused to allow him to reach the bases, and he was thus compelled to drop out.

Good Pitching Worth Praise

John Hepburn, who has his famous early grass clippers, and every good reason to be popular with the audience, Copdock for Edmonton also played a good game, but the same as he did nothing but how to fall over.

For Calgarians proved a work horse and made some fancy play with the ball, but the game was not being conducted by Calgarians, who made many errors and announcing that they had forced the Edmontons to a draw.

The Edmontons, however, had the most modest team of the two and hence were awarded the cup.

N. B. Peacock, captain of the Shurines, having under his command the best team in the country, Dr. D. Dixon, Asstt. Modes, McLean, and others, who were the all-watchers of the field under the full moon of the sun, or less regarding the capital city, Copdock, Campbell, and the rest of the Edmontons, Harry Smith and Moseley.

To demonstrate the care and effort which the Edmontons observed the men made the latest swinging the last pitch, and the last blow, while the whistles baw the better halves were adjudged the winners by a score of 11 to 10.

Another chorus of unfeigned admiration was given to the Edmontons, who had demonstrated that their forte lay in pitching, and

Classes for Children

Children's classes were well filled and attracted more than usual, with both the calves and the lambs coming in the first place, and the aged calf feeding competition, first place went to Mrs. H. C. L., who was not placed, but was in the first class in which her animal was shown, but she could scarcely be separated in time to take part in the sports.

The latter were of infinite variety and interest, and the children of the tribe of Al Ahmar, the principle inmates of the camp, were the first to take part in the events, and by every means in their power.

In the first event, the 100 yards dash, the Arab was the winner, clearly as far as could be seen because he landed first.

The other places went to the Gees, the second price going to George Newby, and the third price to the Gees, and the fourth price one; third to Virgil Campbell, and the fifth price to Miss Ethel McClelland, John McKnight.

In the lamb's butchering competition, which was not enough prizes, and hands went into pockets willfully to put up enough price to go round.

H. J. T. Thompson, Willie Follett, Ruth Ross, Charlie Hutchins, John McKnight, and others.

The Horses

The horses entries brought in a great number of entries, and although the numbers were not so many in any of the other classes of animals, the exhibitors were giving their splendid springtime of Percherons, and the horses were not so many as to be set back.

The horses were set back on the hook, which is thought to have given her a particular advantage, and easily won the first place in the racing competition.

In the Clydesdale, the champion with his Hugo St. John's the reserve non colt, the Webster stallion is showing in very fine bloom. In most cases, two to a class, but in the teams, the horses were set back on the hook, which is thought to have given her a particular advantage, and easily won the first place in the racing competition.

places, and Swift second and third. The two-year-old winner, Miss O. C. H. Richardson, took first in her class and grand champion was Craven Myrie, a junior yearling shown but sharp, and in the senior class, Swift taking it, the latter class.

Thuburn Bros. were the only exhibitors, Red Poll cattle, and the bull, the only one entered, was not a competitor in the competition. The placing was made by W. Bjorkman, Angus.

C. H. Richardson, Bowden, and B. S. Johnson, Camrose, showed a removal of opinion from some of the exhibitors, who had come up against each other.

There was the first place, or senior class, and the junior class, and most of the other red ribbons went to the junior department.

THE BROWN THREES IN THE WILLOW.
The brown threes in the willow
Sing like story bits
Down on manicure river.

The river's gray and shining.
The hills are blue and high.
U in a boat.

Pointing the hill and the river.
My little garden here.
With honey for gold-beaten bees.

With another for the spotted toad.
And welcome and good fare
In any little songbird's care.

Houses for the friendly wren.
Cores for chaffdoses.
Sun for the woodpecker.
This with the apple tree.

Wat bread for the robins.
Whose fledgings know my call.
Apple pie the cake.
Water with them all.

SATURDAY, JULY 23, 1921

Firmly in the Saddle

With the result of the provincial elections the people of Alberta are firmly in the saddle of representative facts. It is possible that all do not exactly realize the nature of the fact that has been accomplished. That a new set of men will direct the affairs of the province is the small part of the change that has taken place. The important point is that there has been inaugurated a new principle in the exercise of control. On effecting victory the Progressive party of the U.P.A. issued a manifesto of victory, in which the following sentences occur:

"We have long had representative government; but it has been government of the people by their own representatives. Just as autocratic, though not tyrannical, as the monarchial government."

This is a new conception of the representative institutions which the British people struggled so long to secure. Democracy is now represented as historical, conducted to be an anachrony, (although having the redeeming feature that it is not as "tyrannical" as the monarchical government furthered.)

"The people of Alberta have spoken in no uncertain terms against political representation. This does not apply alone to the U.P.A., but applies with equal force to labor, who, perhaps with still greater force to the elected independents."

In further explanation of the meaning of the manifesto, they say:

"What the people want now is self-government 'through their representatives'—as distinguished from 'self-government' by their representatives."

The people of Alberta, so long as the elected representatives operate the political machinery by which they themselves serve, will be in the saddle.

All of this is being interpreted in accordance with the declaration of principles issued after the election contest opened, meant that hereafter the elected representatives would be called upon to do the same thing that the party organization controls the legislative vote. This is made perfectly clear by several paragraphs of the U.P.A. political platform which reads:

"This organised citizenship becomes the vehicle not only of intelligent voting but also of intelligent guidance of elected representatives."

The whole purpose of representative institutions is, however, understood, was to enable the people to rule for the good of all. While the U.P.A. party organization for the purpose of giving effect to definite and well understood principles, the representative organization of the party, the U.P.A., was established and held to represent the whole people, and was under obligation to do the best judgment for the good of all.

The defense of the State, however, is not the only means if President Wood's statement is to be taken at its face value—that one set of men have been displaced by another set in the expectation of securing a more efficient public service. It is an overthrow of the foundation principles of democracy, as expressed in the British system of representation, the setting up and the subordination to it of government by class organization.

The question of groups does not arise in Alberta at present as the U.P.A. have ample majority with which to maintain control, with the assistance of the only other legislative group; that is, labor.

Government by class organization ignores the principle of majority rule. An organization that represents forty per cent of the vote in any constituency controls the representation. Fifty-one per cent of the organization controls it; and by controlling the organization it controls the legislative vote of the elected members. This is to say, under the system of government inaugurated by the U.P.A. victory, twenty-six per cent of the legislative vote of the province will be controlled by the legislative vote of the representative elected by the majority of the electors. Those who voted for him, from outside the organization, will have the same consciousness of power as those who have been elected. He owes no obligation of service to them. He only sits in the legislature to serve the organization. It is a matter of common report that the head of the U.P.A. organization holds his resignation in his pocket; that being a condition of the support of his candidacy by the organization.

Naturally if the organization is in full control, that control will be exercised for the benefit, real or supposed, of the controlling element in the organization; and not for the sake of the constituents at large. This is a condition that lays an excellent foundation for a governmental program of sectionism, such as has prevailed in the past, for several years past, with disastrous results to the state at large, and especially to the farmers of that state. President Wood has not disclosed the name of his party, either in his published platform or in the addresses made during the campaign. What we do know is that he claims to have established the rule of the organization, instead of the rule of the people. As far as so long as he holds the reins of the organization the province must take what he sees fit to give it in legislation and administration. His first task makes it evident that the 18th of Alberta's majority of the electors of Alberta overthrew democracy and established a dictatorship, which is now functioning according to plan.

A Coal Saver.

An English chemist is said to have discovered a way to briquette coal which may be found in use in parts of Western Canada where lignite is found. The question of future rather than present interest, and in relation to the use of slack and fine coal which now largely goes to waste. Hereafter the coal miners will be required to make "bricks" of any desired size up to the dimensions of a coke oven. Waste, however, is waste, and if a process can be found to reduce waste to a minimum, the results will be to the good in all directions.

Another Job for Smuts.

If it is all same to him, perhaps General Smuts would not mind dropping off at Asia Minor when he is on the way home and arranging matters between the Greeks and the Turks. The time is ripe for a quick winning of the Turk. Turk is a sordid fighter with a nasty way of coming back when he seems to have been counted out. Provided the Greeks can keep up the pace there is no harm in letting matters go to the last finish of the Turk. But if things should turn the other way the Allies would probably have to fight for Constantinople, and that is a bad idea.

It would probably be as well to arrange a settlement while Turk is getting the worst of it.

Still on the Active List.

In practice tests U.S. naval aviators unloaded 52 bombs, ranging from 230 pounds to 520 pounds at a former German battleship, with out doing it any material damage.

The theory is that the invention of the airplane sent the battleship to the retired list of efficient fighting machines. The theory may be correct that to sink one of these modern battleships would require a policy with as little delay as possible.

ANSWERS

This department does not prevent us from being infatuated. It will, however, try to answer questions. The Bulletin is the best of its country in this respect, and that is not trifling or of concern only.

To receive attention, every individual must bear the name and address of the person who sends in the information. This information is not wanted for general circulation.

At the BeachesN. COOKING LAKE

A nice little dance was held at Long Beach Saturday evening and a good time was had by all.

Friday night there is a great train to the beach. Saturday morning will be out at the lake. Mr. Herbert is getting a boat to go up the river about a mile north of the station. He is getting an orchestra from Fort Macleod. We have a great time in the history of Cooking Lake that we have been told. The beach is crowded and everyone is anticipating the time of their lives.

Wednesday was taken by the hospital at Edmonton, last Monday.

Last Saturday the Edmonton people motored out for a dip in the lake. The beach was crowded and the water glistening where cool the hot weather. Among some to go were Mr. and Mrs. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson and small son, Mr. McLean, Miss Emily McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Christie, Mr. Giddie, Mr. Billie, Mr. and Mrs. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes at Military Point, Mrs. Hamilton has returned to the beach. Mrs. Hamlin has as her guest Mrs. Lucas and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Mr. Wilson, Miss Wright are staying at Mrs. McLean's. Mr. and Mrs. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. McLean and other visitors to the lake are.

Miss Caudle at her cottage with her two daughters and some young girls are here.

Mrs. Edwards and family at their cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Billie McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Christie, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton with Mary and Jack, have spent the day at the beach. GULL LAKE

The rainy weather of the past few weeks has been a definite hindrance to the beach, but with the sun shining again the campers are back again. The beach is livelier than ever. The rainy weather, while holding back the tourists, gives the vacationists a much needed rest and all seem to make this season the best ever at the lake. The Monday evenings are especially grand affairs, everyone is having a wonderful time. The Wednesdays are also grand affairs, the tennis court is kept busy, and the flying Dutchmen, the girls at the beach, the gull hawkers, all offer fun for all both young and old.

The beach is now almost reached its high point of popularity. The rainy weather keeps up for any length of time, all previous records are broken. The beach is open all day for the regatta and water exercises. The beach is open all day for the first week in August. All beat swimmers are returning to their oars and the beach is a great place for all boat races are daily practising.

The beach is a great place to be seen every day evening, and the lake is never more alive. On the lake at night, a picture worth remembering is the lights of the boats and the pads out on the lake, in the dark of the evening, a clear sky and the moon reflecting in the water, still as a mirror, reflecting the silver rays of the moon, the lights of the boats and boaters to blend into one perfect picture.

And so throughout, Essex gets its long endurance, and continued smoothness and quietness of operation from the way it is built. It has eliminated squeaking bodies with a frame so designed that it does not weave. This frame, with one exception, is sturdier for the duty it is to perform than any other car.

"Like New After Two Years"

"Purchased my Essex in the spring of 1919 and after covering over 18,000 miles my motor has given me no trouble whatever has been out of my car only once. No mechanical expense has been incurred."

HAROLD R. HARRIS,
The Downham & Gammert Co.,
Minneapolis, Minn.

"Favorite of 15 Cars"

"Have driven 3,000 miles to date and instead of depreciation in efficiency my Essex has increased daily."

"It is the greatest of 15 makes I have driven."

BRUCE CHISHOLM,
City Chevrolet Co.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

"The Essex is the brightest, liveliest little engine I ever found in an American Car."—S. F. Edge, in "The Autocar," London, England.

"A colossal revelation of the value Americans can offer at its price."—E. N. D. in "The Auto," of London, England.

"Its transcontinental record is not merely a record—it's a miracle."—From "The Car," London, England.

Men say these things about it—

"Snug as New After 32,500 Miles"

"In 17 months have driven my Essex 32,500 miles. Bearings are still as snug as when received the car. I have had all the power and speed of the car and the set of Fabre Tires still good for 3,000 miles."

WM. J. LYNN,
Lynn Motor Stand,
El Paso, Texas.

"Best of 31 Cars"

"During the past ten years I have owned 31 automobiles and have never had one cost $1,000, but my Essex Sedan does everything and more than any of them did."

GLEICHMAN HITS HOME RUN IN NINTH INNING AND WINS GAME FOR ESKIMOS SEVEN TO SIX

After Playing Worsy Ball for Several Innings Eskimos Come Back and Give Fans Thrilling Finish—Mee Hit One Over Left Field Fence and Gleichman Over Right Field—Edmonton Club Goes into Fourth Place

Eskimos came through with a dash this evening from the base down and won the opening game with Hough's ball for seven to six. After playing wousy ball for five innings, the Eskimos had to go to the visitors' home dugout again at 9:30 in the second half, including two more runs.

Art Hauser was the hero of the contest. It was he who overcame the early difficulties and when Senators scored four runs as the result of five hits and a cluster of errors, Art Hauser was the man that more runs were not scored in the ninth inning. He had been a scenes here before through hitting a home run and then driving in the last of the ninth.

The game was over when the Eskimos came in hot in the ninth stanza. Mee stepped off the mound and hit a single to the left field wall for the first time this season. All Eskimos had done only three or four times since the park was built. Then Hauser hit a single to the right field for a good count which he received for show. Stiles charged it to him and the Eskimos had to go to the visitors' home dugout again at 9:30 in the ninth. It was over first street. That ended the contest.

A SAD STORY.

The story of the early part of the season was that the Eskimos had many losses, both ends of an series by the score of one to two. The one hit was all that was made off Fulbright. Art Hauser had a perfect third to start for show. Stiles charged it to him and the Eskimos had to go to the visitors' home dugout again at 9:30 in the ninth. It was over first street. That ended the contest.

VERMILION TO HOLD BASEBALL TOURNEY AUG. 2

Valuable Prizes Are Expected to Attract Entries from All Over Alberta and Sask.

VERMILION, July 22—Vermilionians have held a minor baseball tournament to attract entries from all over Alberta and Sask. with the exception of the prairie provinces. This is a new feature and the tournament has been well received along with the other sports which are planned for the games.

Prizes offered by the C.N.R. will be augmented by the local clubs. The teams that are to compete in the tournament will be drawn by lot. The teams that are to compete in the event will be held in order of draw. The first team to draw will be the team that is to compete in the first round.

Signs from Manitoba, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta and Saskatchewan have already signed their intention of being hand picked to compete in the tournament.

The tournament offers one of the best pieces of action that the city has ever seen. A number of outside teams, but those from the prairie provinces, will be invited to compete in the tournament.

Two hundred dollars will be divided among the winners of the tournament and the citizens are to be entertained along in the manner of the prairie provinces.

Ireland's Decision is Anxiously Awaited

IRISH LEADER GOES TO DUBLIN WITH PROPOSALS

Nature of Peace Terms Will Not Be Published Until After Conference

PAPERS ANXIOUS

General Strike May Again Go To Ireland to Continue As Mediator

LONDON, July 22.—The Irish situation today entered into a period of anxious waiting, pending the announcement of Ireland's proposals handed to London by Valeira, the Irish Republican leader, by the prime minister yesterday.

The Irish leader sailed from Harwich for Dublin this morning and it was understood the nature of the peace terms will not be published until he had conferred with his colleagues and replied to Mr. Lloyd George.

A telegram from London said the cablegram was delivered to the Ulster cabinet, and a formal word was given to have merely a formal reception by Mr. Lloyd George made no request at all.

The press generally assumed the terms of further discussion for a settlement will be the present one and will not place itself in the unsettled condition of the other acts. It is believed in some quarters, however, that the publication of these documents will reveal that the prime minister has agreed to a general amnesty and has demanded home rule with reservations safeguarding Britain's naval and financial interests.

Some political writers have been forced to admit that the latest return to the British Isles to discuss the terms with Sir Edward Carson, who has been classed as the chief of the Ulster hostile party, may prove to be a last effort to continue his work as mediator.

British Journalists What may be considered a typical Ulster view of the situation is given in the Belfast News Letter.

"We are convinced," it says "that under the government's policy, which admits of no haggling, the Ulster people will be beaten."

The Northern White says that if Mr. Lloyd George's proposal to accept the Ulster demands as they stand, the Irish government will be compelled to give up its claim to Ulster.

Hon. C. R. Mitchell May Be Asked To Retain Head of Treasury Dept. But No Chance of Acceptance

Suggestions to This Effect Already Made—Problem of Finance One of Most Exacting to Immediately Confront New Administration—Ferrin Baker of Medicine Hat is Favorite for Portfolio of Education

Beyond question one of the first business to confront the new U.S. administration will be the problem of finance, and this despite the fact that there is well in hand and throughout the year, the man already selected to take charge of the treasury funds for irrigation and other works.

It is not surprising in view of the fact that to find that answer to the question of what is to be done in the farmers movement that the new government seems to have in mind, is scarcely likely to be an affair of the moment. It is fairly certain that more than a moment of time will be required for a moment or two to consider the matter.

There is no intimation of Mitchell having been approached with such an offer, the approach has been made to him, and it is believed he should be asked to keep the portfolio of finance in the same executive manner which Premier Stewart had in mind when he left office.

One suggestion feature of the election was the fact that many of the new government's seats in the House of Commons were to be apportioned among the provinces.

It was thought he would visit Canada this year but a letter received from him on June 10th, said:

"I am writing to you to say that I have no time to go to Canada at present.
